A STATE HOSPITAL FOR HEALING MINDS

Connecticut Valley Hospital, located in Middletown, CT, is the state's largest psychiatric facility. Operated by the Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services, CVH provides inpatient mental health care, substance use treatment, and recovery support for adults. With a mission focused on dignity and rehabilitation, it's a key institution for those passionate about helping others.

STATE JOB STABILITY AND BENEFITS

As a state-run hospital, CVH offers full-time employees excellent health insurance, a pension and retirement plan, paid holidays, vacation time, and tuition support. It's known for job security and union-supported roles, making it a strong option for anyone seeking a reliable, long-term career in public health.

START WHERE YOU ARE, GROW WITH PURPOSE

You can begin as a mental health worker, security aide, administrative assistant, or food service employee—and work your way up. CVH provides training and support for staff to pursue certifications in addiction counseling, nursing, behavioral health, and clinical roles. It's a strong pathway for students interested in psychology, social work, or medicine.

HELPING PEOPLE RECLAIM THEIR LIVES

Whether you're assisting with group therapy, supporting patients during their recovery, or simply offering a safe space, every role at CVH plays a part in someone's healing journey. It's a career that takes compassion, patience, and heart—and rewards you with the chance to truly change lives.
