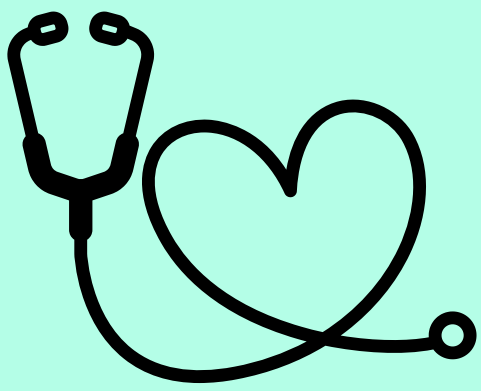
WORLD-CLASS CARE IN A COMMUNITY SETTING

Greenwich Hospital, located in Fairfield County and part of Yale New Haven Health, delivers high-quality care with a personal touch. From maternity and surgery to cancer care and diagnostics, the hospital offers a full range of medical services while maintaining a warm, community-focused atmosphere. It's an ideal workplace for students interested in both high-tech healthcare and hands-on patient support.



EXCEPTIONAL BENEFITS, LOCAL SUPPORT

Employees enjoy strong healthcare coverage, 401(k) retirement plans with matching, paid time off, tuition reimbursement, and access to wellness programs. Greenwich Hospital is known for fostering a respectful, team-driven culture that supports personal growth and work-life balance.

A SMART PLACE TO START YOUR CAREER

Entry-level roles—like patient transport, food service, administrative assistance, or lab tech support—come with training and advancement opportunities. The hospital also partners with local schools and programs to help young professionals move into careers in nursing, medical imaging, and healthcare management.

HEALING WITH COMPASSION AND SKILL

Whether you're greeting patients at the front desk or assisting in a surgical unit, every job at Greenwich Hospital contributes to healing and hope. You'll be part of a trusted institution where your work matters—not just to patients, but to the whole community.
