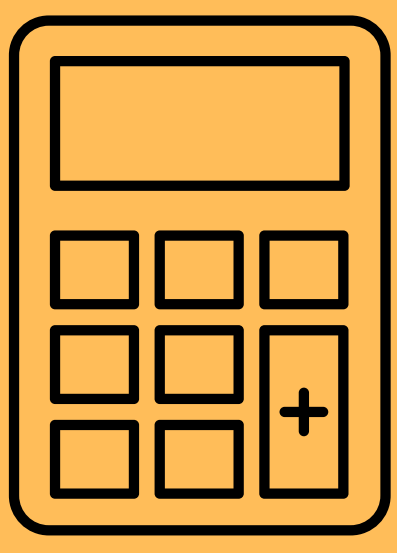
FINANCE WITH A PURPOSE

Hartford Financial Services Group—often simply called The Hartford—is a major insurance and investment company based in downtown Hartford, Connecticut. It protects millions of customers nationwide with products like auto, home, business, and disability insurance. With over 200 years of history, it's one of the most respected names in the insurance industry, offering career paths in everything from finance and marketing to IT, sales, and customer service.

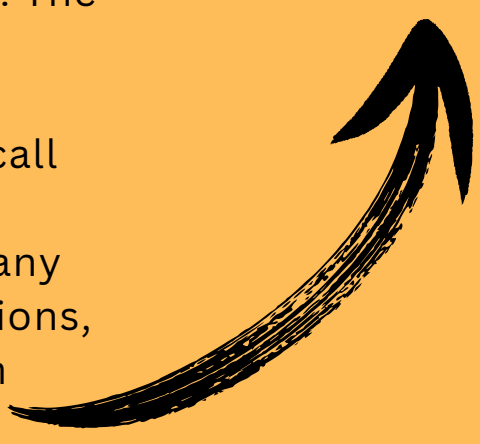


STRONG BENEFITS, SMARTER FUTURE

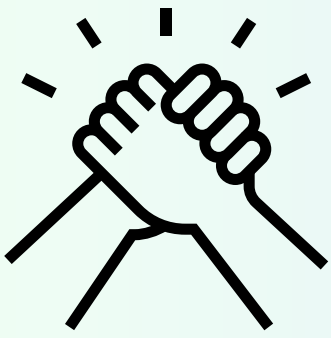
Employees at The Hartford enjoy excellent pay, full healthcare coverage, retirement savings with matching, generous paid time off, tuition assistance, and mental wellness resources. There's also a big focus on flexibility, with remote and hybrid roles available in many departments—plus access to leadership training and mentorship programs for early-career professionals.

START HERE, RISE FAST

You don’t need a finance degree to get started. The Hartford offers internships, co-ops, and entry-level roles where new hires can learn from experienced mentors. Whether you begin in a call center, claims, or data analysis, there’s a clear path to grow into high-paying roles. The company invests heavily in training and internal promotions, making it easy to build a meaningful, long-term career.



HELPING PEOPLE BOUNCE BACK



Working at The Hartford means helping real people recover from life’s toughest moments—like car accidents, natural disasters, or health challenges. It’s fast-paced and mission-driven, with a team atmosphere and a reputation for doing the right thing. You’re not just making money—you’re making a difference, right here in Connecticut.
