UCONN HEALTH INTL TRAVELERS MEDICAL SERVICES

Farmington & West Hartford, Connecticut

uconnhealth.edu

HELPING TRAVELERS STAY HEALTHY WORLDWIDE

UConn Health's International Traveler's Medical Service, based in Farmington and West Hartford, prepares people for safe international travel. Since 1984, the clinic has offered personalized health advice, vaccinations, and preventive care for travelers heading abroad. If you're interested in global health or infectious disease, this is a unique place to start.

BENEFITS THAT GO THE DISTANCE

As part of UConn Health, employees receive comprehensive benefits, including health, dental, and vision insurance, retirement plans, and tuition assistance. The organization emphasizes work-life balance and offers resources for professional development, making it a supportive environment for those starting their careers.

LEARN, GROW, AND ADVANCE

UConn Health supports continuous learning through training programs and partnerships with educational institutions.Whether you're starting in an entry-level position or pursuing advanced roles, there are clear pathways for career advancement in various medical and administrative fields.

BE PART OF A GLOBAL MISSION

Working at the International Traveler's Medical Service means contributing to global health by helping travelers stay safe and healthy abroad. You'll be part of a dedicated team that values innovation, education, and patient care, all while gaining experience in a specialized area of medicine.

CAREER CLUSTER: HEALTH SCIENCE, STEM, RESEARCH, AND PUBLIC HEALTH

PERFECT FOR STUDENTS INTERESTED IN MEDICINE, BIOMEDICAL RESEARCH, GLOBAL HEALTH, PATIENT CARE, AND SUPPORTING INNOVATIONS THAT IMPROVE HEALTH OUTCOMES LOCALLY AND INTERNATIONALLY.