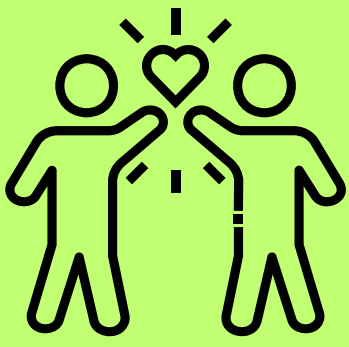
CAMPUSES AND CARE, POWERED BY PEOPLE

UNITE HERE Locals 34 & 35 represent the hardworking staff behind Yale University and Yale New Haven Hospital. From dining hall cooks and custodians to research techs and clerical staff, these union members keep two of Connecticut's most important institutions running smoothly.



UNITY THAT DELIVERS RESULTS

This union fights for more than just wages—it fights for dignity. Locals 34 & 35 have secured strong pay, excellent healthcare, and reliable pensions for their members, helping working families thrive in New Haven. They're proof that when people organize, real change happens.

EARN, LEARN, AND BELONG

Members of these locals often have access to job training, education benefits, and long-term career growth—especially at Yale. It's a chance to build a stable, rewarding life while being part of something bigger: a community that values fairness and opportunity.

LIFTING UP NEW HAVEN

CEA believes in education that supports the whole child—including mental health, equity, and safety in schools. The union has led campaigns on topics like school climate, fair testing practices, and student well-being. They make sure educators—and their students—are treated with the respect they deserve.
