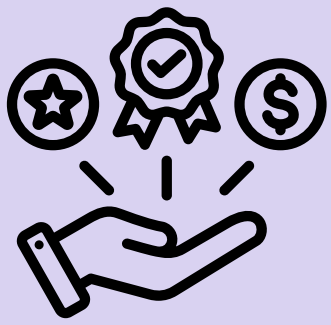
THE UNION BEHIND THE AISLES

UFCW Local 371 represents thousands of grocery store workers, food processors, retail employees, and health care and warehouse workers across Connecticut. From the produce section to the deli counter and beyond, these workers help keep everyday life running—and the union helps make sure they're treated fairly.

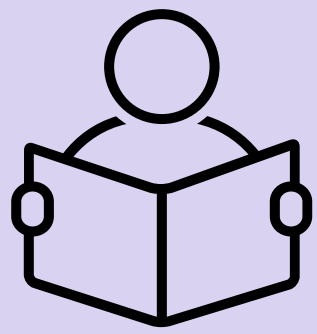
FAIR PAY AND REAL BENEFITS

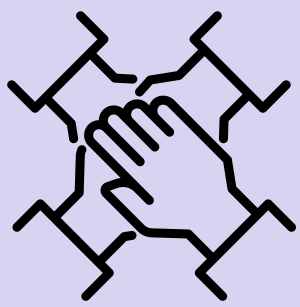


Local 371 fights for solid wages, health insurance, retirement plans, and workplace protections. Thanks to union contracts, members don't have to settle for minimum standards—they get better schedules, job stability, and a say in how they're treated on the job.

WORK TODAY, BUILD FOR TOMORROW

Whether you're starting your first job or planning a long-term career, UFCW supports your growth. The union offers training opportunities, career ladders, and protections that help part-time jobs turn into reliable, full-time opportunities in retail, healthcare, and food industries.





A UNION THAT STANDS TOGETHER

Local 371 members have each other's backs—on the job and in the community. The union organizes to protect workers' rights, speak out on labor issues, and improve life for working families across Connecticut. It's about respect, solidarity, and power in numbers.

CAREER CLUSTER: MARKETING, SALES & SERVICE
