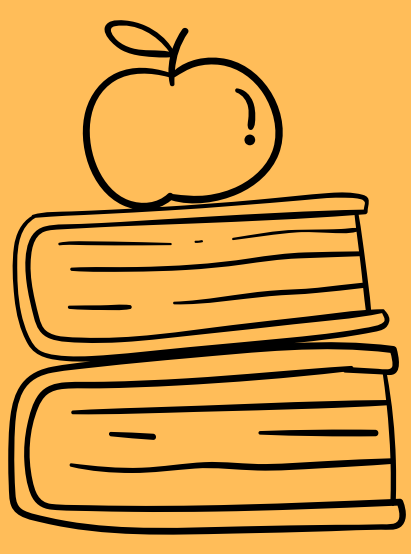
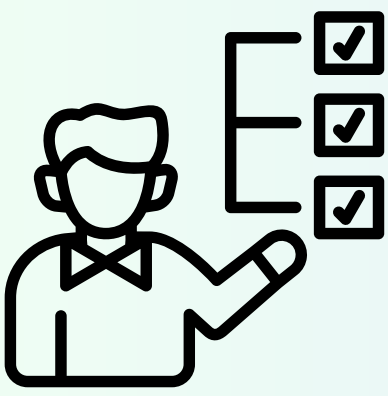
SHAPING YOUNG MINDS IN THE BRASS CITY

The Waterbury Board of Education runs the public schools in one of Connecticut's most diverse and vibrant cities. With over 18,000 students and dozens of schools, it's a major employer offering roles in teaching, counseling, administration, technology, food service, transportation, and more. Whether you want to be in the classroom or behind the scenes, there's a path for you in education.





GREAT BENEFITS, MEANINGFUL WORK

Employees get strong health insurance, retirement through state pension plans, paid time off, and access to professional development. Many school-year positions come with built-in breaks—like summers off for some roles—and opportunities to grow within the district. It's a supportive environment with real structure and union protection for many job categories..

CAREERS THAT KEEP GROWING

Whether you start as a paraprofessional, custodian, or teacher's assistant, Waterbury Public Schools offer training, tuition assistance, and advancement programs. You can earn teaching certifications or move into leadership roles over time. It's a system that invests in its people and encourages upward mobility for anyone who wants to make an impact.

BE A ROLE MODEL IN YOUR COMMUNITY

Working in Waterbury's schools means more than a paycheck—you're helping students build brighter futures. The work you do directly impacts young lives and shapes the future of the city. It's a place where community matters, and where every staff member—from bus drivers to principals—plays a key role in making schools safe, welcoming, and inspiring.

CAREER CLUSTER: EDUCATION & TRAINING, HUMAN SERVICES, AND ADMINISTRATION

PERFECT FOR STUDENTS INTERESTED IN TEACHING, SCHOOL COUNSELING, CLASSROOM SUPPORT, EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP, AND ROLES THAT SHAPE THE FUTURE OF PUBLIC EDUCATION.
